Goa Wedding Show 2014

Over the last few years, Goa has turned out to be one of the top choices when it comes to destination weddings. With a multitude of options right from beaches to quaint churches and majestic forts serving as a backdrop for couples to live their dream wedding, the wedding tourism market in Goa is definitely on an upward swing. Realizing the potential that this market holds and to strengthen the state's presence in the segment, Goa Tourism has decided to host its first 'Goa Wedding Carnaval' in August in Delhi and Mumbai.

The Goa Wedding Carnaval 2014 aims at boosting tourism in Goa by tapping into the emerging destination wedding market in India.

Exhibitors will include wedding planners, hotels, event managers, vendors, fashion designers, spas, travel agencies, hotels, photographers/videographers, hair and make-up artists and artist managers. The organizers hope that this experience will help increase trade opportunities for local vendors in Goa.
