Go river rafting this monsoon!

Goa has a pleasant surprise for water sports enthusiasts, and pure fun for the whole family. You can go white water rafting in Goa on river Mhadei even if you do not know swimming.

The river rafting facility should be available sometime in July to October 2014 subject to availability of rapids and adequate water currents, and suitable weather conditions. There will be two trips beginning at 10.30 am and 2.30 pm every day. The program is open to both adults and children above ten years.

White water rafting activities are carried out in accordance with the internationally accepted norms. The instructors are highly trained and operations run with a 'safety first' policy. Each passenger will be provided with safety equipments like life jackets, paddles following the instruction sessions from experts.
